HEAD COACH JAKE BOSS JR.

JAKE BOSS JR.
HEAD COACH
15TH SEASON

Jake Boss Jr. was appointed the 16th head coach in Michigan State baseball history on July 1, 2008, and has quickly become one of the most successful coaches in the program's 130-year history.

In 15 seasons at MSU, Boss has compiled a 416-354 (.540) record. His 416 wins are not only the most over a 15-year span in program history, but he also become the third Michigan State baseball coach to reach 400 Victories for MSU, earning his 400th win in the Spartans' 7-1 Victory for MSU over Ohio State on April 7 at Jackson Field in Lansing. HEAD COACH JAKE BOSS JR.

Coach Boss won his 400th Victory for MSU on April 7, 2023 vs. Ohio State, and was presented a ceremonial plaque and game ball the next day before the game at Jackson Field by MSU Vice President/Athletic Director Alan Haller (R) and MSU Athletics Senior Associate AD/Student-Athlete Engagement Elliott Daniels (L).

In addition, for the second straight season MSU ranked among the nation's top 25 in fielding with a Big Ten-best .975 fielding percentage, which ranked 24th among all NCAA Division I teams.

Holm (12th round, Detroit), Wunderlich (20th round, Oakland) and Eckerle (32nd round, Detroit) were each chosen in the 2011 MLB Draft.

In 2010, Boss led the Spartans to a 34-19, tying for the sixth-most wins in program history. MSU opened the year winning 20 of its first 25 games, the best 25-game start since 1971, and racked up an 11-game winning streak during that stretch, the longest since 2004. MSU's strong start garnered national attention, as the Spartans received votes in the national polls. Although the Spartans narrowly missed a bid to the Big Ten Tournament on the last day of the regular season, MSU was rewarded with seven players on the All-Big Ten Team. Leading the way was shortstop Jonathan Roof, MSU's first All-Big Ten first-team selection since 2006. Second baseman Ryan Jones earned Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors, becoming only the second player in program history to win the award.

In addition, two Spartans - Roof (eighth round, Texas) and A.J. Achter (46th round, Minnesota) - were chosen in the 2010 MLB First-Year Player Draft in June.

In Boss' first season, he led the Green and White to its highest Big Ten finish in five years and its first trip to the Big Ten Tournament since 2004.

Under Boss' direction in 2009, the Spartans won their most games at home (15) and matched their longest conference-game winning streak (7) in the previous five seasons. The 2009 season also marked the opening of McLane Baseball Stadium at Kobs Field.

"I believe in order to be successful and develop our players throughout their careers, we will focus on four main areas in each of their lives: academics and the effort to learn and graduate; character on and off the field; team philosophy and the effort and will to win; and career goals both at Michigan State University and beyond," said Boss when he was hired. "Our players will play hard, compete, and most importantly, trust each other to be successful. We will build our program on relationships and a family atmosphere throughout our team consisting of both current and former players."

In just one season as head coach at Eastern Michigan in 2008, Boss made an immediate impact, guiding the Eagles to their second consecutive MAC West Division crown and first NCAA Regional appearance since 2003. The Eagles swept through the MAC Tournament, winning all four games by a combined 21 runs, to notch the school's fourth tournament title. The conference title capped a remarkable turnaround, as Eastern Michigan - picked to finish fifth in the division - closed the season on a hot streak, claiming 25 of 40 games and earning a berth in the NCAA field.

For his efforts, Boss was selected the 2008 MAC Coach of the Year and made history by becoming just the second coach in league history to win the MAC Tournament and advance to the NCAA Tournament in his first season. Overall, the Eagles finished the season 15-8 in conference play and 25-34 overall.

Boss is was stranger to postseason play prior to coming to East Lasing, having coached in six NCAA Tournaments. Prior to being named head coach at Eastern Michigan, he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Michigan from 2004-07, as the Wolverines made NCAA Regional appearances all three seasons. Boss was a member of the staff that led the Wolverines to three straight 40-win campaigns, with a 42-19 record in 2005, a 43-21 mark in 2006 and a 42-19 finish in 2007. Michigan won the 2006 and 2007 Big Ten regular-season titles, and claimed an NCAA Regional title in 2007 by upsetting top-seeded Vanderbilt to advance to the school's first-ever Super Regional.

Boss was an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan for seven seasons (1997-2004) before coaching in Ann Arbor. During his stint as an assistant in Ypsilanti, Boss helped the Eagles to back-to-back MAC West Division championships in 2002 and 2003. In 2003, the Eagles also won the conference tournament title while advancing to the NCAA Regional. Working mostly with catchers, infielders and hitters, the Eagles set several team records under Boss' direction, including home runs with 95 in 2002.

Boss began his collegiate coaching career in 1996 and 1997 as an assistant baseball coach at Iowa Central Community College in Ft. Dodge, Iowa. Both seasons the team advanced to the NJCAA World Series, including a runner-up finish in 1997. While at ICCC, he worked with three All-Americans, coached the catchers and outfielders and oversaw the academic services of the baseball team. He also served as an associate scout for the Atlanta Braves organization in 1996-97.

Boss started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Lakeview (Mich.) High School in 1994 before being named the head coach at Webberville (Mich.) High School in 1995. Boss, who played baseball at Alma from 1989-93, earned his bachelor's degree in English in 1993. He completed his master's degree in physical education from Eastern Michigan in 2000. An accomplished writer, Boss was co-author of a book, Dare to Hit .400, in the spring of 1998. He has been a member of the American Baseball Coaches Association since 1995.

Boss and his wife, Cheryl (Schiff), have two daughters, Abigail and Grace, and a son, Jacob.

In July of 2023, Coach Boss joined some other MSU Athletics coaches and special guests for an "experience of a lifetime" on the USS Carl Vinson.

COACH SIKES

GRAHAM SIKES
ASSISTANT COACH
14TH SEASON

Graham Sikes enters his 14th year as an assistant coach for the Michigan State baseball program in 2023. He also serves as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Sikes primarily works with the Spartan outfielders and hitters, while also coordinating the base running program. Sikes also is the third base coach during MSU's games.

During his tenure at MSU, the Spartans have had 32 MLB Draft selections, including a program-record eight in 2015.

In his first two seasons on the Spartan staff, Sikes played an integral role in helping the Spartans win the Big Ten Championship in 2011 and earn a berth in the NCAA Tournament in 2012.

Brock Vradenburg led MSU while ranking second in the B1G and 24th in the NCAA in batting average exactly a .400 average in 2023, becoming the first Spartan to hit .400 or better since 2002 and becoming the 28th member of MSU's ".400 Club." The Spartan first baseman was the first member of the club since 2002 when Brady Burrill (.414), Chris McCuiston (.404) and Bob Malek (.402) all hit over .400.

In 2022 under Sikes' tutelage, sophomore infielder Mitch Jebb ranked among the conference leaders in hitting, finishing the regular-season ranked ninth in the league with a .356 average. Jebb also led the B1G and ranked 17th in the NCAA in toughest to strikeout - with just one K every 13.7 ABs - on just 16 Ks in 219 ABs. Additionally, Jebb was eighth in the conference with 20 stolen bases. Junior outfielder Casey Mayes also led the Big Ten and ranked tied for third in the NCAA with seven triples.

Jebb garnered All-Big Ten Third Team accolades, while redshirt-freshman catcher Bryan Broecker was tabbed to the Big Ten All-Freshman team, after hitting .271 ranking tied for fifth on the team.

The 2021 season saw Sikes mentor sophomore outfielder Zaid Walker, who was tabbed to the All-Big Ten Third Team list. Walker was one of two Spartans to start and play in all 44 games, along with Bryce Kelley. Walker led MSU and ranked 22nd in the B1G with a .308 average, also leading the team and rank 20th in the B1G with 31 RBI. He also led the team in hits (52), runs scored (29) and total bases (71), while ranking second on the team in stolen bases (7), third in both home runs (3) and on-base percentage (.367), and fifth in slugging percentage (.420). Walker also tied for third with total extra base hits with 12 on eight doubles, one triple and three home runs.

Senior Bryce Kelley led MSU and ranked sixth in the B1G with 11 stolen bases. Kelley became the new MSU career stolen base king in 2021, as he broke the record on April 11 vs. Purdue, swiping his 80th career base, passing Anthony Cheky's previous record of 79 from 2012-15. Kelley broke the record in the first inning, by stealing third. He reached on a walk, then moved to second on a groundout, before swiping third. After swiping No. 80, he was congratulated by third base coach Sikes, and presented the record setting base by a member of the MSU Facilities grounds crew in a special presentation, while the small crowd of family of the student-athletes gave Kelley a standing ovation. Kelley's record-setting moment was No. 5 on NCAA Baseball's Player of the Week. Kelley padded his record finished his Spartan career with 83 swipes.

At the plate, Kelley led the team and ranked third in the B1G with 30 walks, as well as ranking sixth in the league in walks/game (0.68). Kelley also finished third on the team in runs scored (26), fifth in hits (39) and on-base percentage (.357).

Sikes also helped Joe Stewart adapt to playing outfielder, shifting from infield. Stewart entered the 2021 season with just three total hits in 17 total games played, posting only 19 career at bats prior to this season. However, he had a torrid start to the 2021 season and swung a hot bat throughout, finishing with a .276 average, leading MSU in total extra base hits with 15 on nine doubles, one triple and five home runs, ranking second or tied for second in all three categories. Stewart was also second on the team in RBI (24), and total bases (66), as well as third in slugging percentage (.455), and fifth in both average and runs scored (21).

Stewart hit .471 (8-for-17) in the four games of the Ann Arbor pod vs. Illinois and Michigan on March 20-22, including four doubles, coming in a span of three games, with one vs. Illinois in the opener on March 20, then two in the game on March 21 vs. Illinois before another one in the nightcap vs. Michigan, one of his season-high four hits. Stewart also had a team-best five RBI, with three coming March 20 vs. Illinois, coming to bat with the bases loaded and clearing them with a three-run double. He also had a standout play in the field of the win on March 22, getting an outfield assist to end the fourth inning, firing a frozen rope to junior catcher Adam Proctor at home, and Proctor made a nice snag and tag on the UM runner for the out to end the inning and preserve MSU's 2-0 lead.

With five multi-RBI games, Stewart was second on the team, logging two games with two ribbies, two with three, and a season-high four RBI, coming at Rutgers on May 23. Stewart also had 10 multi-hit games, with five games with two hits, four contests with three hits and one game with career-high four hits. He had a season-long seven-game hitting streak (March 12-21), as well as a seven-game reached base streak over the same span. In the field, Stewart made 34 starts in center field, making 71 putouts and five assists.

In the shortened 2020 season, Sikes coached outfielder Bryce Kelley, was tabbed as recipient of the Danny Litwhiler Defensive Player of the Year MSU team award for the second-straight season. Kelley started in center field in 13 games, while starting in left in the first two games of the season. He posted a perfect 1.000 fielding percentage, with 19 putouts and two assists, along with using his speed to cut down several hits, turning several doubles into singles. His highlight outfield assist was his throw to catcher Gabe Sotres for the tag at the plate in top of ninth for defensive walk-off vs. Western Carolina on Feb. 29, to preserve a 4-3 win. Kelley's other outfield assist came vs. Morehead State on Feb. 16 with a double play on a flyout and doubling-up the runner at second.

Kelley joined Bailey Peterson as the only Spartans to play and start in all 15 games, and one of three players to play in all 15 contests, along with Ahn. He was second on the team with a .400 average, ranking tied for fifth in the B1G and tied for 88th in the NCAA, along with ranking sixth in the conference with a .486 on-base percentage, and added a .417 slugging percentage. Kelley ranked second on the team, along with tied for fourth in the B1G and tied for 74th in the NCAA with 24 hits. He shared the team and Big Ten lead with eight stolen bases with Peterson, ranking tied for 45th in NCAA, and also ranked tied for second in the conference and tied for 44th in the country with 0.53 stolen bases/game.

He was tabbed as the Big Ten Conference Co-Player of the Week on Feb. 17, for his performance in the opening weekend for his first career Big Ten Player of the Week award. Kelley hit .647 (11-of-17) for the weekend, which led the Big Ten by over .100, as well as ranking 15th in the NCAA after the first weekend of the season, leading Michigan State to a four-game sweep of Morehead State in Charleston, South Carolina at Shipyard Park, as the Spartans were the only Big Ten team to win all four of their games on the weekend. Kelley's 11 hits also led not only the Big Ten, but shared the lead for the most in the NCAA, and was three hits more than any other player in the conference. He had at least two hits in all four games played, including going 4-for-5 with two RBI and two runs scored, adding one stolen base in Michigan State's 15-3 win in the series and season-opener on Feb. 14.

Kelley led the team with the longest hitting streak of the season, getting a hit in the first 13 games of the season, before going hitless in game 14, but had a hit in the 15th game, giving him at least one hit in 14 of the 15 games of the season. He also shared the team-lead with reaching base in all 15 games, joining Peterson.

In 2019, Sikes mentored junior outfielder Bryce Kelley, who moved up to No. 2 on MSU's career stolen base list with 64 swipes, entering his senior season just 15 shy of the record of 79 stolen bases held by Anthony Cheky (2012-15). Kelley teamed with senior infielder Marty Bechina and junior outfielder Danny Gleaves to form a speedy Spartan trio that was the only the active threesome in the country to have three players on the respective school stolen base list. Kelley is No. 2 with 64 stolen bases, Bechina was No. 9 with 35 and Gleaves at No. 10 with 34.

Sikes also worked with sophomore catcher Adam Proctor, who led MSU and ranked 16th in the Big Ten with nine home runs. With nine round-trippers out of his 17 hits last season, Proctor was the only player in the country with five or more round-trippers to have half of their hits be home runs. The next closest player was Jason Hinchman of Tennessee Tech, who ha 24 home runs of his 55 hits. Over half of Proctor's hits were for extra bases, as along with his nine home runs, he had two double for 11 extra-base hits of his 17 total hits.

The 2018 Spartans established a new team school record for stolen bases, swiping an even 100 for the season, topping the 98 base swipes by the 2005 squad. MSU led the Big Ten and ranked 10th in the NCAA with 1.92 stolen bases per game, while the 100 stolen bases led the B1G and ranked 14th in the nation. Michigan State wasla also second in the B1G in stolen base attempts (128), while also ranking fourth in the league in triples (13).

Additionally, sophomore outfielder Bryce Kelley broke the MSU single-season stolen base record with 33, surpassing former teammate Brandon Hughes' previous record of 30 set a season ago. Kelley was third in the NCAA in stolen bases per game (0.66), while the 33 base swipes ranked tied for 10th in the country.

Under Sikes' tuteledge in 2017, MSU's offense led the Big Ten in on-base percentage (.378), while ranking second in the B1G in batting average (.290), second in slugging percentage (.440), on-base percentage (.378), doubles (113) and stolen base attempts (123), along with ranking third in stolen bases (96). The 96 stolen bases was the second-most in school history at the time. Brandon Hughes led the Big Ten and ranked eighth in the NCAA with 30 stolen bases, breaking the MSU single-season record, also leading the league and ranking third in the nation with 0.63 stolen bases per game. Bryce Kelley earned Freshman All-American accolades and was on the B1G All-Freshman Team after he led MSU with a .353 batting average overall, ranking third in the B1G. Kelley ended the season on a 13-game overall hitting streak, which started a day after his previous 13-game hitting streak was halted, finishing the season with a hit in 26 of last 27 games and 29 in 31 games. Alex Troop was a finalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award.

Sikes helped tutor a Spartan offense that posted the Big Ten's third-best batting average (.283) in 2016. For the second straight year, MSU also produced a league batting champion as Jordan Zimmerman's .376 average in Big Ten play led all players.

Ryan Krill was the 2015 Big Ten batting champ, hitting .451 in league games.

In 2015, the Spartans posted a .290 team batting average, which ranked third in the Big Ten, while MSU's .422 slugging percentage was second best in the league. The Spartans also combined for 45 home runs, which ranked third in the conference.

Sikes helped the Spartan offense rank in the top half of the conference in several key categories in 2014, including ranking first in stolen bases with 88 - the second-highest total in program history. Individually, Anthony Cheky led the Big Ten in steals with 29, while Bliase Salter ranked third in RBIs with 50.

The Spartans ranked in the top four in the Big Ten in in 2013 in several key offensive categories, including: batting average (.281), slugging percentage (.377) and on-base percentage (.357). Spartan hitters also struck out fewer times than any other team in the league.

and total bases (858). In addition, MSU finished 16th in the nation in hits and 35th in batting average. The 645 hits were the second most in a single-season in MSU history, while the 356 runs were eighth most, the 97 doubles tied for ninth most, and the 319 RBIs were 10th most in the school record books.

During Sikes' first season in 2011, Michigan State led the Big Ten and ranked seventh in the nation with a .318 batting average. The Spartans also ranked among the conference's leaders in hits (first with 639), slugging (second at .427), on-base percentage (second at .385), runs scored (second with 348), RBIs (second with 317) and doubles (second with 115). The Spartan outfield helped MSU turn in an overall fielding percentage of .976, which was tops in the Big Ten and 24th in the nation.

Prior to arriving in East Lansing, Sikes spent three seasons (2008-10) as the volunteer assistant coach at Notre Dame and has also coached at James Madison, Young Harris (Ga.) College, Nicholls State and Independence Community College (KS). Throughout his career, Sikes has coached 67 players who have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, including seven who have reached the Major Leagues. Sikes coached current Major League All-Stars Charlie Blackmon at Young Harris and AJ Pollock at Notre Dame.

While at Notre Dame, Sikes primarily coached the catchers and outfielders. He also oversaw UND's expansive baseball camp operations and helped coordinate the program's annual Opening Night Dinner. Sikes coached 14 players who were drafted during his three seasons at Notre Dame.

In working with the Irish catchers, Sikes tutored Cameron McConnell, who threw out 26 base stealers in 2009 - the most by an Irish catcher since 1996 and seventh most in the nation. McConnell threw out 36.1 percent (26 of 72) of attempted base stealers on the season, which was the second-highest percentage for an Irish catcher since 1996, and followed that effort by throwing out 12 more runners in 2010. In addition, Sikes coached Will Harford, who was selected in the 45th round (No. 1,357 overall) by the Cincinnati Reds in the 2010 Major League Baseball Draft.

An assistant at James Madison for the 2007 season, Sikes helped instruct the Dukes hitters while working directly with the catchers, the position he played at Liberty University. While at JMU, Sikes coached Kellen Kulbacki who was named 1st Team All-American in 2006 & 2007, CAA Player of the Year in 2006 & 2007 and Co-National Player of the Year (NCAA). He had been promoted to recruiting coordinator at JMU three weeks before heading to Notre Dame.

Sikes previously was the recruiting coordinator, hitting coach and catcher's coach at Young Harris (Ga.) College in 2006, helping direct a Mountain Lions team that racked up 48 wins while being ranked eighth among the nation's junior college teams. He coached seven players on that team who were MLB Draft picks during the 2006 season.

Sikes' first coaching position came in the fall of 2004, when he was named the assistant coach for Independence (Kan.) Community College and worked primarily with the team's hitters, catchers and outfielders. After the fall season at Independence, Sikes earned an assistant coaching position at Nicholls State (La.) University and went on to work with the team's catchers while assisting with the hitters during the 2005 season. Sikes mentored Nicholls State player John Brummet as he made the transition from third base to catcher, and that position switch helped land Brummet a professional contract with the Oakland Athletics' organization (he went on to be promoted to AAA in his first professional season).

From 2005-07, Sikes worked for the Pittsburgh Pirates as an associate Major League Baseball scout, with his coverage area including Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. He also coached one season (2005) for the Florence RedWolves of the Coastal Plain League.

Sikes was a four-year letterman at Liberty in Lynchburg, Va., helping lead the Flames to a pair of Big South Conference championships and two NCAA Regional appearances. During his career as the Flames' catcher, Sikes threw out better than 50 percent of attempted base-stealers. He started behind the plate for the team's win over Seton Hall in the South Atlantic Regional, producing the school's first NCAA Tournament victory in any sport.

During his senior season, Liberty finished among the nation's top-10 leaders in nearly every offensive statistic, as the Flames hit .337 with 86 home runs, 30 triples, 151 doubles and 111 stolen bases. Twenty-four of his Liberty teammates went on to careers in professional baseball.

Sikes earned his undergraduate degree from Liberty in 2002 and went on to earn a master's degree in health and physical education from Emporia (Kan.) State University in 2006.

Sikes and his wife Katie, have two daughters, Lucy and Lydia.

COACH VAN AMEYDE

MARK VAN AMEYDE
ASSISTANT COACH
SEVENTH SEASON BACK/
13TH OVERALL

Mark Van Ameyde is in his seventh season back on the Spartan bench and 13th overall.

Michigan State baseball head coach Jake Boss Jr. announced on Dec. 14, 2017 that former Spartan assistant coach Mark Van Ameyde (pronounced VAN-uh-mead) would be returning to Boss' staff as the MSU pitching coach. Van Ameyde was previously on the MSU bench from 2009-14, including associate head coach from 2011-14, before becoming the Eastern Michigan head coach in 2015.

"We are all excited that Mark and his family have decided to come back to Michigan State," Boss said at the time. "Mark is an outstanding coach and did a great job at Eastern Michigan, leading them to the MAC Tournament championship game a year ago. Mark has done an awesome job with pitching staffs everywhere that he has been, including our 2011 Big Ten Championship and 2012 NCAA Regional appearance. We couldn't be more excited that he and his family are back in East Lansing and a part of the Spartan family."

Under Van Ameyde's tutelege, four Spartan pitchers have been selected in a span of five Major League Drafts: Riley McCauley (2018), Mitchell Tyranski (2019), Indigo Diaz (2019) and Mason Erla (2021), and two more have signed non-drafted free agent contracts: Mike Mokma (2019) and Sam Benschoter (2021).

In 2022 under Van Ameyde, the Spartan pitching staff posted 376 strikeouts, marking the 19th time in program history to reach the 300-K plateau and moving up into the Top 10 on MSU's single-season strikeouts list at the No. 10 spot. Individually, graduate senior relief pitcher Kyle Bischoff garnered All-Big Ten Third Team accolades, while freshman pitcher Ryan Szczepaniak was tabbed to the All-Freshman Team.

Bischoff had a standout season in his one season for the Green & White, transferring to MSU from Toledo. He led MSU and the Big Ten with 12 saves, ranking No. 2 on MSU's single-season saves list behind Jeff Kinley's school-record 13 saves in 2014. Bischoff had a 2-1 record, leading MSU with a 3.51 ERA, tallying 36 strikeouts in 41.0 IP. During a span of just over a week during the season (April 19-27), he earned three saves and a win. Bischoff was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Stopper of the Year Award Midseason Watch List.

Szczepaniak posted a 4-3 overall record in 2022, sharing the team lead in wins, while ranking fifth on the team in both innings pitched (42.1) and appearances, (16), making eight starts and eight relief appearances. He finished with 35 strikeouts, ranking sixth on the team. Szczepaniak also earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors on March 9 for his performance on March 6 against nationally-ranked West Virginia, firing 5.0 IP with four strikeouts, allowing just three hits and one earned run in stymieing the WVU bats.

Van Ameyde mentored Spartan pitchers Mason Erla, Sam Benschoter and Nick Powers in 2021. Erla was selected in the 17th round of the 2021 Major League Baseball Draft, picked in the 17th round (pick number 501) by the Los Angeles Angels. Benschoter signed a non-drafted free agent contract with the Cincinnati Reds. Powers earned Big Ten All-Freshman Team honors.

Erla posted five wins in 13 starts in the 2021 season, leading MSU in 79.2 IP, ringing up a team-leading 80 strikeouts, which ranked tied for 10th in the B1G. He also ranked 10th in the conference with a 3.50 ERA. Erla was the Robin Roberts Most Valuable Pitcher MSU team award recipient for the second-straight season.

In 2021, the right-hander fired six or more strikeouts in 11 of his 13 starts, including seven or more in his first three starts. Erla rang up his season-high eight strikeouts in three different games, including two of his first three outings, highlighted by his match-up vs. Illinois on March 20 at the Ann Arbor pod weekend, firing 7.0 IP and eight strikeouts without a run, yielding a season-low of four hits, all singles, and only walking two. He had two appearances without allowing an earned run, with an outing on April 17 vs. Purdue joining the aforementioned outing vs. Illinois, as well as two appearances with only one earned run (April 9 vs. Penn State; May 21 at Rutgers).

Benschoter earned the Craig Hendricks Spartan Spirit Award in 2021, receiving the award given to the most positive team player who is enthusiastic, trustworthy, conscientious, hard-working, and good humored in honor of Spartan Baseball alum Craig Hendricks. In true selfless fashion, Benschoter gave up the opportunity to start on Senior Day vs. Iowa in favor of coming out of the bullpen so that fellow senior Jarret Olson could make his one and only start of the year because of an injury suffered before the season began.

For the 2021 season, Benschoter was second on the team and tied for 12th in the B1G with 79 strikeouts, posting three wins in eight starts in 69.1 IP. Benschoter finished eighth in the B1G in strikeouts per nine innings (10.3).He opened the season in explosive fashion, firing a then career-high 10 strikeouts in a 6-0 shutout Victory for MSU over Maryland in the 2021 season-opener on March 5 at Fluor Field in Greenville, South Carolina, going a career-high 8.0 innings. In MSU's first game since March 8, 2020, before the rest of the 2020 season was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Benschoter didn't show any signs of layoff, as he provided much of the excitement on the night, and was dealing, scattering just five hits to a Maryland offense that hit .258 as a team, and the Spartan hurler stymied the Terrapin offense, shutting them out after they led the Big Ten last year with 111 runs in 15 games (7.4 runs per game, including striking out well-decorated Preseason Award winner Maxwell Costes twice as part of holding him to 0-3.

Benschoter had another smashing outing on April 25, striking out a modern day school record 17 batters vs. B1G-leader Nebraska in 9.1 IP of relief. The 17 strikeouts is the most in modern day school history, bettering Mark Mulder's 16 Ks against Campbell on March 7, 1998. He was named to Collegiate Baseball National Players of the Week list on April 26, and was named the Big Ten Conference Baseball Co-Pitcher of the Week on April 27 for his performance.

Coming into game to start the third inning, Benschoter struck out the side in the third and fifth innings on the way on the way to stymieing Nebraska bats, as they entered game leading the Big Ten in batting average, and Benschoter did not allow a hit until the eighth. Benschoter racked up two strikeouts in the fourth and sixth innings, and after yielding a leadoff single in the ninth, chalked up three strikeouts. The 17 Ks matched the most in the B1G this season and was tied for the second-most in a game in the NCAA this season, while the 9.1 IP is the most in the B1G and second-most in NCAA.

His 10 Ks vs. Maryland and 17 vs. Nebraska were two of his three double-digit strikeout outings on the season, also with 10 vs. Indiana on March 27, also in a relief role.

For his career, Benschoter finished with 143 strikeouts in 45 career appearances.

Powers burst onto the scene, before suffering a season-ending injury at Penn State on May 1. At the time of his injury, he was leading MSU and ranked tied for fifth in the B1G with four wins, logging a 4-3 record with a 4.87 ERA in 44.1 IP with 35 strikeouts. Powers also ranked 24th in the B1G in

The first-year Spartan hurler chalked up five or more strikeouts in four outings, led by a career-high of seven Ks vs. Purdue on April 11 in a career-long 7.2 IP.

The All-Freshman Team selection is Powers' second Big Ten award this season, as he was named the B1G Co-Freshman of the Week on March 30, for his performance against Indiana on March 28, as the Hoosiers were leading the B1G at the time. In his first-ever game at McLane Stadium at Kobs Field, Powers fired 6.2 IP shutout innings in earning the win against Indiana, running his scoreless inning streak to 15-straight innings, before yielding a run with two outs in the seventh. He finished with three strikeouts, and did not allow an Indiana runner past second base until the seventh, his final inning, in limiting the Hoosiers to a season-low four hits while tying a season-low with just one run, after Indiana entered the game among the B1G leaders in hits and runs.

At the time, the Spartan southpaw was the only pitcher in the Big Ten to defeat the top two teams in the league standings in Indiana and Michigan. He accomplished the feat in his last two starts over the span of less than a week, beating Michigan on Monday, March 22, and Indiana on Sunday, March 28. Powers collected MSU's first Big Ten Freshman of the Week award since March 12, 2018 when current teammate Mason Erla earned the accolade.

In 2020, MSU got off to a 9-6 start after the first four weekends away from home, including opening the season 4-0 and later having another four-game win streak, before the rest of the season was canceled due to the ongoing COVID-19 (coronavirus) pandemic.

Despite the shortened season, pitcher Mason Erla was named a Second-Team All-American by Collegiate Baseball. Erla posted a 2-0 record with a paltry 1.04 ERA in four starts, firing 42 strikeouts with only four overall runs allowed, with three earned, and just six walks in 26.0 IP. He ranked second in the B1G and 10th in the NCAA with 42 strikeouts, along with being tied for sixth in the conference with eight strikeouts looking. Erla also ranked second in the league and 49th in the nation with a 1.04 ERA, and ranked 16th in conference with a .211 batting average against. Additionally, Erla ranked fourth in the B1G and tied for 30th in the NCAA with 14.54 strikeouts per nine innings, along with ranking tied for fourth in the league and 74th in the nation with a 7.00 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

Through the first 15 games, MSU's pitching staff ranked third in the Big Ten and 24th in the NCAA in strikeouts per nine innings (11.0), as well third in the B1G in strikeouts (167), along with fourth in batters struck out looking (42). The Spartan staff also ranked third in the league in both ERA (3.35) and opposing batting average (.224).

In 2019, the Spartan pitching staff posted 445 strikeouts, marking the fifth-consecutive season that MSU surpassed 400 strikeouts. Junior pitcher Mitchell Tyranski received the Robin Roberts Most Valuable Pitcher Award for the second-straight season, after he led MSU and ranked sixth in the B1G with 89 strikeouts overall in 78.0 IP total. The 89 strikeouts is tied for eighth on MSU's single-season strikeouts list, matching Ron Perranoski (1958). Tyranski was one of three Spartan pitchers from 2019 to move up to the Major League Baseball ranks, as he selected in the 12th round (pick number 371 overall) by the Los Angeles Dodgers, while junior pitcher Indigo Diaz was selected in the 27th round (pick number 871 overall). Junior pitcher Mike Mokma also signed a pro contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

In his first season back with the Spartans in 2018, MSU's pitching staff rang up 407 strikeouts for the season under Van Ameyde's guidance, marking the fourth-straight season that the Spartans have topped the 400 K plateau, ranking No. 4 on MSU's team strikeouts list. Redshirt-freshman pitcher Mason Erla earned All-Freshman Team accolades, after leading MSU and ranking tied for eighth in the Big Ten with six wins. Erla was also second in the B1G in opposing batting average (.216), as well as tied for 14th in the league in innings pitched (79.2 IP) and tied for seventh in games started (15), along with tied for 10th in B1G only games with 11 batters struck out looking.

Another Van Ameyde coached Spartan pitcher was Riley McCauley, who was was selected in the 14th round (pick number 428 overall) of the 2018 Major League Baseball Draft by the Chicago Cubs.

McCauley tied for seventh in the Big Ten with five saves in 2018, which all came in conference action, ranking him fifth in the B1G only stats. McCauley also made seven starts, including firing a career-high 12 strikeouts in his first collegiate start, at Fresno State on Feb. 16. McCauley's 12 strikeouts was tied for the most in a single-game in the Big Ten in 2018.

At EMU, Van Ameyde posted a 70-106 record in his three seasons leading the Eagles. In 2017, Van Ameyde led EMU to a 27-35 overall record and a 14-10 Mid-American Conference mark, finishing third in the MAC standings before ending as runner-up at the MAC Tournament, which was the first time the Eagles reached the title game since 2008.

"It's a little surreal; it's very unexpected, certainly when I left a few years ago to take the head coach position at Eastern Michigan. You don't think that you'd ever be back. It was really tough to leave when I left the first time," Van Ameyde said. "I'm extremely grateful for all the good people at Eastern Michigan that I worked with. It was very hard to leave all of them.

"I have a lot of great memories from my time at Michigan State, I worked with a lot of great people and got to work with a lot of outstanding student-athletes and great teams. We did a lot of winning," Van Ameyde said. "The MSU Administration, and of course Coach Boss, were very supportive when I left, and I'm very grateful to all of them for the opportunity to come back. I've known Coach Boss for a long time, and I worked with Coach (Graham) Sikes for four years when I was at MSU the first time, and I coached Coach (Jordan) Keur, so I'm really comfortable with all of those guys, and I've won with them. So to get an opportunity to come back and work together again with a goal to win another Big Ten Championship like we did back in 2011, I thought `hey let's go do it.' I'm excited to work with the pitchers and that talented group. I've been at Michigan State more than I've been at any other school, so I sort of feel like a Spartan after being there for so long and winning a Big Ten title, even though I didn't go to school there. I'm fired up, and my family and I are excited to rejoin the Spartan family."

At Eastern Michigan, Van Ameyde coached five All-MAC honorees, including two in 2017 after two in 2016, marking the first time that EMU had multiple players selected for all-conference honors since 2011-12. Senior pitcher Sam Delaplane earned first-team All-MAC accolades in 2017, after leading EMU with a 3.27 ERA and a 4-3 record, with 92 strikeouts in 20 appearances. The 92 strikeouts ranked second in the MAC. Delaplane was selected in the 23rd round of the 2017 MLB Draft by the Seattle Mariners, becoming the first EMU player since 2012 to be drafted.

Coach Van Ameyde

Off the field, 28 EMU players earned Academic All-MAC honors in the three seasons under Van Ameyde, with 10 accolades in 2017, the second-most in the MAC, including four MAC Distinguished Scholar Athletes.

During his six seasons at Michigan State, Van Ameyde was assistant coach for the 2009-11 seasons, before becoming associate head coach for the 2012-14 seasons. Van Ameyde was one of the key components to MSU's success, including helping the program to its first Big Ten Championship in 32 years in 2011 and a berth in the NCAA Regionals in 2012. Under Van Ameyde's tutelage, the Spartan pitching staff demonstrated significant improvement.

In 2014, the pitching staff ranked second in the Big Ten with a 3.09 ERA, which was also the 10th lowest in MSU single-season history.

In 2013, the Spartan pitching staff compiled a 3.22 ERA, the 10th lowest in program history. MSU also held opponents to a .240 batting average, which tied for the best in the Big Ten. For the second consecutive year, MSU ranked in the top 40 nationally in walks allowed per nine innings (22nd at 2.73), WHIP (14th at 1.18) and ERA (36th at 3.22).

During the 2012 run to the NCAA Tournament, the Spartans had one of their best seasons in school history on the mound. MSU recorded 389 strikeouts, second most in the school record book, and compiled a 3.28 ERA - the lowest for a Spartan staff since 1972. The Spartans led the Big Ten in opposing batting average (.249), saves (15) and pickoffs (12) while ranking second in strikeouts and third in ERA. Michigan State also ranked among the top 40 nationally in walks allowed per nine innings (22nd at 2.76), WHIP (33rd at 1.24) and ERA (35th at 3.28).

For the second straight year, Tony Bucciferro earned All-Big Ten honors (third team) while becoming MSU's alltime leader in innings pitched (372.1) and games started (55). Bucciferro, who was drafted in the 14th round of the MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox, also finished his career second in school history in strikeouts (272) and tied for third in wins (26).

The Spartans led the league in saves in part due to closer Tony Wieber, who collected a career-high nine saves in 2012. Wieber finished his career as MSU's all-time saves leader (18) and was selected in the 33rd round by the San Diego Padres.

All three of Michigan State's Big Ten starters - Bucciferro, Andrew Waszak and David Garner - were named Big Ten Pitcher of the Week during the 2012 season, a first in school history. Bucciferro won the award twice (Feb. 20 and May 14), while Waszak (April 16) and Garner (April 30) each earned it once. The four Spartan selections for Big Ten Pitcher of the Week was also a school record (previous: three in 2011).

In 2011, MSU had two first-team All-Big Ten starting pitchers (Kurt Wunderlich, Bucciferro) for the first time in school history. In addition, Wunderlich became the first Spartan to be named Big Ten Pitcher of the Year after setting a then-MSU single-season record with 101.2 innings pitched while winning a conference-high 10 games, the second most in school history. Wunderlich was drafted in the 20th round by the Oakland Athletics in the 2011 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

The bullpen was equally effective, ranking second in the Big Ten with 16 saves. Wieber led the way with a team-high eight saves, tying for third-most in an MSU season, to garner third-team All-Big Ten accolades. Van Ameyde also mentored Garner, who collected five victories on the mound and was named to the All-Big Ten Freshman Team.

Overall, the Spartans finished third in the Big Ten with a 4.08 staff ERA, the lowest ERA for the program since 1978. MSU also walked the third-fewest batters (172) in the conference and the 332 strikeouts were the fifth most in school history.

During MSU's 34-win campaign in 2010, the Spartans ranked third in the Big Ten in ERA and allowed the fewest amount of runs and walks in the conference. Michigan State also recorded 335 strikeouts as a staff, the fourth-highest total in school history.

All three of MSU's Big Ten starting pitchers - A.J. Achter, Wunderlich and Bucciferro - ranked among the top 11 in the conference in innings pitched. Achter, who was drafted in the 46th round of the 2010 MLB Draft by Minnesota, ranked second in school history and third in the Big Ten in 2010 with 98.2 innings pitched. A third-team All-Big selection, Wunderlich led the team and tied for fifth in the conference with eight wins. Six Spartans on the staff collected at least four wins on the mound, and closer Kurtis Frymier tied for third in school history with eight saves.

In Van Ameyde's first season in East Lansing, MSU ranked fourth in the Big Ten in ERA and opposing batting average. MSU's 326 runs and 537 hits allowed in 2009 were each the second-lowest in the conference. The Spartan pitching staff also totaled 302 strikeouts, which was the most by a MSU squad since 2004 and the ninth-highest single-season total in school history. The Spartan pitching staff also picked-off a league-high 19 base runners. Van Ameyde was also a part of the Spartans' first no-hitter in over 16 years as on April 4, senior pitcher Nolan Moody nohit Northwestern in the first-ever game at McLane Baseball Stadium.

Prior to his time at Michigan State, Van Ameyde spent the 2008 season on Boss' staff as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan, helping the Eagles to the MAC West Division title and the MAC Tournament championship, while earning a berth in the NCAA Tournament. His pitching staff showed steady improvement throughout the season, as the Eagles won 25 of their last 40 games heading into postseason play. In conference games, Robert Wendzicki led the league in saves with seven, while Matt Shoemaker posted a perfect 3-0 record.

Before his first stint at EMU, Van Ameyde was an assistant coach for three seasons at Georgetown, including serving as the associate head coach in 2007. He guided the pitching rotation to numerous team records, including most strikeouts in a season, fewest walks in a season and the lowest team ERA in 23 years. In 2006, the Hoyas posted the most Big East Conference victories since 1985. He also served as recruiting coordinator for the Hoya baseball program, was responsible for recruiting trips, and ran the annual Georgetown Baseball Camp.

Prior to joining Georgetown, Van Ameyde spent four seasons as the associate head coach at the University of Detroit-Mercy. He led UDM to the top of the Horizon League in batting average as the team's hitting instructor, in addition to serving as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. From 1999-2000, Van Ameyde was the head coach at St. Mary's College, where he was responsible for the implementation of the program. He led St. Mary's College to the NSCAA World Series in 2000.

Van Ameyde earned two letters pitching for Detroit-Mercy, garnering all-conference and team MVP honors in 1994. He also pitched at Henry Ford Community College for two years and helped the team to a regional championship in 1991.

Van Ameyde graduated with a bachelor's degree in communication from UDM in 1996.

Van Ameyde and his wife, Melissa, have three sons: Chase, Cole and Cash.

Stone mentored three Spartans that earned Big Ten accolades in 2023, as junior infielder Brock Vradenburg collected First Team All-Big Ten honors, while junior infielder Trent Farquhar was named to Second Team All-Big Ten, and junior infielder Mitch Jebb was tabbed to the Third Team All-Big Ten list.

Following the season, two of those Spartans coached by Stone were part of the three MSU players drafted in 2023, marking the first time that MSU had three draft selections in the same draft since 2019, with Jebb (2nd round, Pittsburgh Pirates) and Vradenburg (3rd round, Miami Marlins). Additionally, Trent Farquhar signed a non-drafted free agent contract with the Philadelphia Phillies.

His baseball resume is filled with success at the highest levels of our game, and we're anxious to have him working with our players on and off the field to develop them and help them become better student-athletes and better people."

"I've always enjoyed my time on campus and also enjoyed the intensity and the overall feeling of campus towards the athletic department and student-athletes. It seems that the whole university really backs them and does a terrific job of putting all of the Spartan teams in a good position to be successful, and baseball is no different.

"I'm excited to enter that realm of being a coach. Jake Boss has always been a friend to me ever since he recruited me when he was at Eastern Michigan, when I was playing high school baseball in Springfield, Ohio. Going through the recruiting process with Jake was nothing but a pleasure. To come full circle and then be hired by him now, to do a job, and work with him, is very exciting," Eaton said. "In just the short period of time that I've been able to work with the players and get to know the players, we have a really, really good group, a group that wants to work, that wants to win, that wants to put the Michigan State uniform on every single day and they're proud to do that. What else can I ask for coming into a situation such as this. Overall, I'm just super excited and all the parts seemed to fit extremely well, so it was an easy decision for me."

McLane Baseball Stadium at Kobs Field

McLane Baseball Stadium at Kobs Field, which was dedicated during the 2009 season, is one of the finest baseball facilities in the Midwest.

The ballpark has 2,500 seats, with 400 chair back seats and 2,100 bench-style seats, a press box, backstops, all new fencing and handicap-accessible seating, with brick accents to architecturally match historic Jenison Field House and MSU's hitting and pitching facility.

McLane Baseball Stadium at Kobs Field cast a brighter footprint on Old College Field with the addition of lights prior to the 2019 season. The lights project was completed in early March and the Spartans played their first game played under the lights in 135 years of MSU baseball on Friday, April 5.

Located in the heart of Old College Field, the facility is Michigan State's most historic athletic site, with its unique atmosphere part of the rich tradition at MSU. Sitting on the banks of the Red Cedar River, the facility is known as a hitter's park because of the excellent background supplied by the trees lining the river.

One of the chief purposes of the "New Life for Old College Field" campaign, which began in 2006, was to enhance historic Kobs Field. With the replacement of the field in 2006 and the addition of a new indoor hitting and pitching facility in the fall of 2007, the final piece of the "New Life" project was the stadium.

In 2008, with the tremendous generosity of Drayton ('59 masters in food marketing management) and Elizabeth McLane who provided a $4 million commitment to enhance one of the most pristine settings in intercollegiate athletics, the new McLane Baseball Stadium became a reality. The MSU Board of Trustees approved the naming of the stadium in September 2008 and the stadium was completed for the 2009 season.

History was made on April 4, 2009, the first official game in the new stadium, as Spartan pitcher Nolan Moody threw a no-hitter against Northwestern. It marked MSU's first no-hitter in 16 years.

The stadium was officially dedicated on May 2, 2009, with a pre-game ceremony honoring the McLane Family. In addition to the stadium dedication, MSU also celebrated and recognized the 125th anniversary of Spartan athletics and formally acknowledged Old College Field as an official Michigan historical site. In December 2008, the Michigan Historical Commission approved a historical marker for MSU's oldest athletic facility still in use and the new marker was unveiled during the May 2 pre-game ceremony.

Since the renovation, Michigan State owns an 81-41 (.664) record at McLane Baseball Stadium, including a 50-33 record (.602) in Big Ten play. MSU posted an 11-4 record at McLane Baseball Stadium in 2011, including an 11-1 mark in Big Ten play. The Spartans clinched a share of the Big Ten regular-season championship on May 20, 2011, against Northwestern with a 10-1 victory over the Wildcats, marking MSU's first Big Ten title since 1979.

Michigan State clinched a share of the 2011 Big Ten regular-season championship on May 20, 2011, with a 10-1 victory over Northwestern at McLane Baseball Stadium.

Michigan State averaged more than 1,400 fans a game during the Big Ten season in 2012, including a sold-out crowd of 2,734 against Michigan on April 7.

McLane Baseball Stadium at Kobs Field

The field underwent renovations in summer 2006 to resurface and make improvements in the playing area. The entire field area was skinned, and several layers of old dirt and sod were removed. With a stripped surface, work was then done to level the field. The pitcher's mound and both bullpens were rebuilt and graded with fresh dirt, as was the infield. Kentucky bluegrass grown at MSU's renowned Hancock Turf Research Center was used to re-sod the field.

In the summer of 2015, McLane Stadium at Kobs Field had a new electric field heating system installed by Sports Fields, Inc., becoming the first baseball field in the world with the state-of-the-art system.

The deepest section of the ballpark is in center field, measuring 400 feet, with the shallowest part being down the right-field line at a mere 301 feet. Former Spartan Kirk Gibson launched the longest ball ever hit out of Kobs Field in 1978 when he smacked a 550-foot blast that cleared the trees in right-center and landed on Adams Field (formerly known as Landon Field). The right-field fence, which was heightened to 16 feet prior to the 2011 season, adorns the numbers of Spartan greats: No. 1 Danny Litwhiler, No. 5 Tom Yewcic, No. 10 Steve Garvey, No. 13 Mark Mulder, No. 25 John Kobs, No. 30 Kirk Gibson and No. 36 Robin Roberts.

Drayton & Elizabeth McLane

The site of Kobs Field was originally purchased by Michigan State's Board of Agriculture in 1900 for $1,137.50. Kobs Field was dedicated in 1969 to John Herman Kobs, who served as head coach at Michigan State for 39 seasons (1925-63).

ABOUT DRAYTON McLANE

Drayton McLane is no stranger to bringing new life to baseball programs or corporate endeavors for that matter.

While owner of the Houston Astros from 1993-2011, the Astros won four National League Central Division titles, earned two Wild Card berths and appeared in the 2005 World Series. The McLane family also brought one the finest stadiums in the game to the franchise - the award-winning Minute Maid Park.

McLane also serves as Chairman of McLane Group. During his years with the McLane Company - a subsidiary wholesale grocery distribution business - he enhanced its technology systems and added 16 distribution centers nationwide to expand its business from a $3 million a year operation into a $19 billion enterprise.

McLane and his wife, Elizabeth, have two sons, Drayton III and Denton. In his spare time, McLane has been active in numerous philanthropic ventures, including: Vice President of the Executive Board for the Boy Scouts of America; Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Scott and White Memorial Hospital; member of the National Board of Governors for Cooper Institute of Aerobics Research; a director of the Bush School of Government and Public Service at Texas A&M University; member of the Greater Houston Partnership; and member of the United Way of the Texas Gulf Coast.

In 2008, McLane was recognized as the Michigan State Baseball Distinguished Alumnus of the Year.

MICHIGAN STATE BASEBALL FACILITIES

The completion of the indoor hitting/pitching facility adjacent to McLane Baseball Stadium in the fall of 2007 was one of the giant steps in bringing "New Life" to the Spartan baseball facilities. The new $1.4 million dollar facility has four batting cages and two pitching mounds which give the Spartans an edge in offseason training.

With an area of 10,900 square feet, the MSU baseball program has plenty of room to work on their games. In addition, there are coaches' offices and storage room for equipment which makes working out at the facility convenient.

To simulate game situations in the offseason, the Spartans take advantage of the 86,000-square-foot Duffy Daugherty Indoor Facility, one of the biggest complexes of its kind in the Big Ten.

Located on the lower level of Jenison Field House, the Spartan locker room is state-of-the-art. The facility boasts spacious wooden lockers, a large flat-screen plasma television, a video game setup, internet access and a lounge area.

2023 MICHIGAN STATE BASEBALL NEWS & NOTES

• Michigan State concluded the 2023 season with a 33-22 record, finishing eighth in the Big Ten Conference with a 12-12 league mark and qualifying for the B1G Tournament in Omaha, where the Spartans finished sixth. MSU's 33 wins are its most since 36 in 2016.

• The Spartans' B1G Tournament run came to close after going 1-2 in Omaha. MSU opened with a 3-2 loss to No. 1 seed and B1G regular-season champion Maryland on May 23, but then bouncing back for a 6-4 Victory for MSU over No. 5 seed Rutgers on May 25 to advance to the May 26 quarterfinal match-up with Nebraska. The Huskers pulled away for a 4-0 win over Michigan State to eliminate MSU.

• The Spartans won at least one game in six of the eight visits under head coach Jake Boss Jr., as Michigan State was making its first appearance in the B1G Tournament since 2018, and no player on the Spartans' roster had been to the conference tournament. Overall, MSU made its 15th appearance including its eighth under Coach Boss.

• MSU honored its six senior players, Andrew Carson, Zach Hopman, John Malcom, Brian Martin, Casey Mayes and Wyatt Rush, along with student manager Josh Wolf, in a pregame ceremony on May 20, 2023, the final game of the regular-season. After the game, the seven seniors went out to centerfield to kiss the painted Spartan head, the Michigan State tradition for Senior Day.
